Our dispatch contains all sorts of rumors in none of which can we place much confidence excepting those in regard to operations in Tennessee

Every one who wishes that the war may be vigorously prosecuted till the rebellion is crushed will regret the announcement of difficulties and hostility between Generals Halleck and Hooker We had hoped, after the appointment of the latter and the general satisfaction that followed it on the part of the Army of the Potomac—a satisfaction that was the result rather of experience of his capacity, his discipline and his care than of first choice—that no question whatever might arise which could disturb the necessary harmony between high military leaders It has been one of the [illegible] things in the conduct of the war as well as [illegible] of the most mischievous, that no General was well in his position, and known and trusted by his subordinates, before some quarrel has grown up which has made [illegible] necessary Sometimes the cause has been trivial, [illegible] suspicion, and sometimes more serious but in all cases, delays have resulted the war has been protracted and very likely the new officer has been compelled shortly to follow his predecessor into retirement The list of unemployed Generals who have been pronounced incompetent after some sort of trial is fearfully long and we are forced to the conclusion that the War Department had very little sagacity in making its selections or that those who have been tried have had poor opportunities to prove themselves If the dispatch is reliable it is not unlikely that Hooker has joined the long procession of declared incompetents, and some other General is now at the head of the Army of the Potomac For the country's sake we trust that this kind of performance will soon cease, and that some one will be found fit to command and continue to do so, till he dies or conquers a peace

We have a new story of the losses sustained on both sides in the recent battle If true, it is a sad reflection that so much life blood has been spilled on account of the infernal rebellion, and that its immense value now gone forever, has accomplished so little for the Union

The wires have again been loaded with the traitor's name—Vallandigham We had hoped the loyal States were rid of him as a dangerous nuisance, but it seems that it is possible that his treasonable talk is yet longer to be tolerated What must loyal soldiers think as they bear that such a man is allowed to preach rebellion unharmed at the North, while their lives are exposed in fighting it at the South?

DEATH OF THE LAST SURVIVOR OF THE FOUNDERS OF ASTORIA—Gabriel Franchere one of those sent out by Astor in the famous Astoria expedition and the last survivor of that party expired at St Paul, Minnesota, on the 12th of April Franchere was born in Montreal, Canada in 179[illegible], which place he left in 1815 to make the overland trip, so beautifully narrated by Washington Irving It is stated that whole pages of his own narrative were copied, word for word in Irving's work Subsequently he became connected with the American Fur Company afterward with the firm of P Chouteau, Jr & Co and at the time of his death was the senior partner of the house of G Franchere & Co of New York City

REMOVED—We are informed by Mr E Giddings, who arrived in this city last evening, en route as a delegate to the Vancouver Union Territorial Convention from Olympia, that he had received a private dispatch from Washington, informing him that Victor Smith had been removed from the Collectorship of the Puget Sound Custom House District, and that Mr Fred Wilson of Washington Territory has been appointed in his place The pay of this office has been changed from fees and perquisites to a salary, the amount of which we did not learn

ROAD OVER THE MOUNTAINS—The wagon road over the Cascade mountains is now open and daily traveled The streams are all well bridged and the road is generally in good traveling order

NATIONAL, NOT FEDERAL—We commend the following paragraph from the [illegible] pamphlet by Benson J Lossing to the attention of the loyal press throughout the State

Let us remember that we are a Nation not a league of States Words have deep significance in certain relations Let us in thinking, speaking and writing of our Government and its concerns habitually use the word National instead of Federal The former expresses a great truth and is bold and noble the latter expresses a falsehood and is narrow and ignoble in comparison The former is calculated to inspire our children with just expanded and patriotic views the latter by its common use will tend to perpetuate the heresy of the doctrine of State sovereignty, give our children false ideas and make them subservient to sectional [illegible] Let us habitually say National Congress National Capitol National Government National Army and Navy National Judiciary etc [illegible] the idea of Nationality permeate our whole political system.

LIGHT ON THE MATTER AT THE EAST—We take the following from the San Francisco Bulletin of May 12th:—

By overland telegraph we have a[illegible] receipt of advices from Eastern market [illegible] Money continued easy at [illegible] per cent on call and negotiations of first class commercial paper were reported at even 4 per cent per annum The dullness in all branches of business both regular and speculative was tending to the [illegible] capitalists, [illegible] other [illegible] to extend their deposits with the Treasury Department, and [illegible] five-twenties and [illegible] which had fallen [illegible] at about 1,000,000 per day Some papers allude to what they designate the [illegible] and Stock markets [illegible] of the [illegible] recent legislation At the moment it seems to be understood that the price of gold has been [illegible] a more or less certain [illegible] affairs generally [illegible] And [illegible] the effect of legislation is maintained by many The legislation has greatly circumscribed [illegible] A large amount of capital is now [illegible] and the demand for it seems to wear a more legitimate aspect People, indeed, invest [illegible] when they are alarmed by reverses or by threatening [illegible] or when they require it for commercial purposes But in the recurrence of any public disaster [illegible] any unusual demand from any cause tending to elevate the price a source of supply is immediately opened and a sufficient [illegible] launched upon the market to check the upward tendency and sometimes even carry prices down to a lower point than they started from [illegible] some with what truth we know not that these movements [illegible] the result of an arrangement between [illegible] capitalists and the Secretary of the Treasury made at Government expense and with the express design of sustaining the Government credit in such emergencies [illegible] skillfully managed [illegible] serious [illegible] views of these parties are correct, that the whole weight of Government resources and influence is brought directly to bearing on Gold and the course of the market is [illegible] or free [illegible] stands at every avenue and the bold [illegible] must encounter a power which he [illegible] to overcome [illegible] is therefore restrained while to those who really desire to invest through timidity or for any other cause the result is [illegible]

SOMETHING ABOUT BLOCKADE—A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer on board of one of the blockading vessels off Charleston writes thus of the difficulties of the blockading service

Keeping a blockade may seem to the uninitiated a very easy task, but when I saw the rebel batteries lining the shore mounting rifled guns which threw four miles and a half thereby causing our vessels to lay out from the shore that distance I could well imagine how a fast English steamer running sixteen miles an hour piloted by a renegade American assisted by signal light on the rebel shore, could come up in the dark and, watching her chance, run in under the rebel guns, and then pass up to Wilmington These blockade runners always time themselves so that they will reach a blockaded port about three o'clock in the morning Our vessels can of course show no lights as that would indicate their whereabouts to the "runners" while, on the other hand the signal fires on the rebel shore plainly show to the "runners" not only their proper course and location of friendly batteries but also the position of the blockading fleet It is a wonder to me considering the extent of coast to be guarded and the facilities offered to blockade runners that our vessels have succeeded in making a capture Besides at night when not moonlight, you cannot see beyond half a mile on water

THE SPIRIT OF THE REBELLION—Governor Bonham of South Carolina, complains in his recent message that an undue proportion of the cereals grown in that State, and which ought to furnish food for the rebel armies is distilled into whisky, contrary to law The Richmond Examiner says whisky is used to a frightful extent in Rebeldom and declares that it is "the King of the Confederacy" Everybody drinks it everywhere it is sold at awful prices and everywhere it is sold at awful prices and everywhere its bad effects are seen In this view of the case we conclude that the spirit of the Confederacy is tremendous What the poor victims of the Davis tyranny lack in grub they make up in grog, adding a little powder before going into battle No wonder Rose[illegible], Hooker, Grant, [illegible] Stoneman and Banks have got them into such a tight place If they continue in this jug [illegible] we may soon expect to see them lying in the last ditch

HORRIBLE APPARITIONS—The Protestant clergy of France, about 700 of them, have addressed to the clergy of Great Britain an appeal to give all aid and comfort to the cause of emancipation in the United States They say the triumph of the rebel oligarchy would "put back the progress of Christian civilization and of humanity a whole century It would make angels weep in heaven and demons rejoice in hell It would enable the friends of the slave trade and slavery in all lands to hold up their heads [illegible] they are to [illegible] at the first signal, in Asia in Africa and even in the great cities of Europe It would give a fatal blow at the work of evangelical Missions and what a terrible responsibility would rest on the Church which [illegible] the silence [illegible]"

THE IRON [illegible]—[illegible] contends that the attack of the iron clads on Charleston forts resulted in no way unfavorably to the prestige of the new fighting batteries [illegible] advantage has been gained in knowing exactly what they can endure and what is necessary to perfect them [illegible] the history of war [illegible] a vast [illegible] such costly preparations [illegible] expenditure [illegible] half dozen small [illegible] than an ordinary first class screw ship

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to May 16th.

LOUISVILLE, KY, May 1[illegible]th—On Wednesday evening a party of [illegible] noted rebel guerilla [illegible] Frank[illegible] Ky, for the purpose of attacking [illegible] were met by a [illegible] detachment of [illegible] The rebels were routed with the loss of five killed and a number wounded and captured

Colonel Jacobs [illegible] fight on Sunday last with the rebels on the Cumberland [illegible] men including three officers Capt [illegible] with several other [illegible] officers and [illegible] were killed and taken prisoners Gen [illegible] Morgan [illegible] regiments in all [illegible] 4,000 [illegible] the Cumberland [illegible] at different times and points [illegible] regiments [illegible] Kentucky

Col Graham at Glasgow killed [illegible] rebels and drove 200 [illegible] the Cumberland on Wednesday [illegible] north side of the river

NEW YORK, May 1[illegible]—The [illegible] states [illegible] misunderstanding exists between Generals Halleck and Hooker [illegible] positively stated that Halleck [illegible] Rappahannock [illegible] Halleck

The steamer [illegible] from Aspinwall bringing $800,000 in treasure [illegible] the country for Mosquito [illegible]

Richmond papers [illegible] that Stonewall Jackson was [illegible] shot by his own men [illegible] after [illegible] Fredericksburg [illegible]

Matamoras [illegible] the 18th of April [illegible] It is understood that the schooners [illegible] fitting out as privateers at Brazos [illegible] awaiting crews

Gen Magruder has been at Brownsville for some weeks

The sloop [illegible] has been seized on the Rio Grande [illegible] from New York [illegible]

A Washington letter [illegible] says it is certain that the army of the Potomac lost a large number of prisoners [illegible] and that its dead and wounded [illegible] the south bank of the Rappahannock [illegible] artillery, [illegible] arms and ammunition [illegible] officers [illegible] frankly informed the President that he would retire [illegible] by the Government

WASHINGTON, May 1[illegible]th—The Richmond papers have a telegram dated Tullahoma May 12th, which says that scouts from the front report the removal of the enemies (Federals) baggage to the rear of Nashville All quiet in front

The Enquirer says five or six transports had landed troops at West Point on the 10th who are throwing up entrenchments across from the Mattapony to the Pamunky rivers

From the fact that a number of officers and men are daily arriving from the Rappahannock to get leave of absence to go home it is regarded as an indication that the army will not move at present

An official dispatch from Paducah Ky today says that on the night of the 12th 50 men of the 1st [illegible] Cavalry were taken up the Tennessee river in gunboats and landed at Brickenridge They dashed across the country to London surprised a rebel force three times their number killed three, captured Lieut C [illegible] with six other officers 0 privates 10 conscripts [illegible] horses arms etc and burnt the [illegible] which was the rebel depot with a quantity of arms and supplies We lost no men

CINCINNATI, May 1[illegible]th—The application made to Judge [illegible] to issue a writ of habeas corpus two days ago has been refused

The report from Washington that Vallandigham was to be sent South is not credited here It is understood that Burnside will announce what [illegible] to be [illegible] of him

The New York Tribune of Thursday [illegible] tizes very severely the [illegible] General Stoneman saying the damage inflicted on the enemy [illegible] The [illegible] says it is idle to deny that the campaign of General Hooker which begun so auspiciously has come to nothing [illegible] losses are [illegible] will not fall [illegible] than 17,000 killed, wounded and missing [illegible] may [illegible] a loss of 18,000 [illegible] in proportion to the strength of his army [illegible] Hooker's army is still largely [illegible] the enemy [illegible] condition

A CORRECTION—We are informed by Governor Gibbs, Superintendent of the Penitentiary, that our item in yesterday's paper relative to the escape of convicts was incorrect in several particulars It seems that only two made the attempt to escape, and that only one got away, the other was shot through the hip and stopped The sufficiency of the guard was equal to what it has been before, and this is the first escape that has occurred during the seven months past in which the Governor has had the supervision of the Penitentiary, and the efficiency of the officers and guards who have the immediate control of the convicts is manifest, when it is considered that during the same time last year there were twelve escapes Our item of yesterday was published just as it was told to us on the street at a late hour the previous evening and we presume that any one can understand how easy an item of this kind can be and in fact usually is magnified

THROWN FROM A HORSE—Mr V Paris, tin smith on Alder street, was thrown from a horse yesterday afternoon about three o clock, in the vicinity of the Jewish Synagogue He was taken up in an insensible state and conveyed to his room supposed to be seriously injured but an examination by Dr Elwert the attending physician, proved that no bones were broken, and that Mr Paris would soon recover the shock sustained by the fall

GLASS BLOWERS—The National Glass Blowers, will give one of their instructive exhibitions at the Turn Verein Hall to morrow afternoon at two o'clock, for the benefit of the different Schools of the city There will be no performance at night, however; but a series of exhibitions will be given next week, commencing on Monday night

THANKS—We acknowledge the receipt of a package of pictorials and papers from Charles Barrett's Newspaper Depot, just received by overland mail.

TO BUILDERS—This is the last day for receiving bids for the new school house for the Congregation Beth Israel

Union County Convention at Vancouver.

The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Union County Convention, held in Vancouver, W T, May 16th, 1863

WHEREAS, A needless and wicked rebellion exists in our nation, drawing men of all parties to the defense of our Government, and

WHEREAS, The main thought and desire of true patriots of all political parties, is for the crushing out of treason wherever found, whether at the South in armed resistance to law and order or at the North in measures and parties whose sole aim is to embarrass the lawfully constituted authorities of our Nation in their efforts to overthrow the enemies of our Union, and

WHEREAS, All other issues are unimportant, therefore

Resolved, By this Convention, that peace with rebels on any terms, except an unconditional surrender to the national authority, would be dishonorable that the surest and quickest way to vindicate justice and honor, is a vigorous prosecution of the war; and that believing that the war so prosecuted must end in the permanent establishment of one Government over one people, we are for the war for that glorious consummation, at any cost of life and means

Resolved, 2d, That while our soldiers fight under one banner, with one purpose, in the field we should be united in the defense of the Government at home

Resolved, 3d, That adherence to old party ties in this crisis is unpatriotic and mischievous, and that all who truly love their country, should be pledged to unanimity in sentiment and action in its behalf, against all foes military or political

Resolved, 4th, That we will band ourselves in one Union League, to sustain the Administration in its efforts to restore the National authority and to crush treason and traitors from our soil, with all that can germinate or support either

Resolved, 5th That we will select such men and only such to represent Clarke county in the Union Territorial Convention to be holden at Vancouver, W T on the 25th inst, as entertain sentiments and feelings in harmony with the foregoing preamble and resolutions

LEVI DOUTHIT,
Chm'n of Committee

The following named gentlemen were elected Delegates to the Union Territorial Convention to be held at Vancouver May 25th 1863 — Messrs T M Coffey, J O Raynor S R Whipple Levi Douthit, John Ard, and Wm H Marsh

FROM KENTUCKY—Put in your crops farmers of Kentucky and do not fear that you will not be allowed to harvest them in security The days of rebel raids upon your peaceful fields are checked the power of your Government for your protection can now be exercised and a cordon of loyal hearts and bristling bayonets is about to be drawn as a wall to keep off the desolation of invasion and the incendiary torch of guerrillas —Louisville Journal

CITY COUNCIL.—The Council met last evening—eight members present.

The report of the Assessor was read and referred to the committee on ways and means.

Bills of J. K. Witherell and Jas. Burk were ordered paid.

Bill of Sharkey & Lucas, $10.50, was referred to the committee on accounts and current expenses.

An ordinance to impose and regulate licenses was read first and second times.

Report of committee on bill of J. H. Mitchell, for $214, was adopted.

An ordinance to define the duties of the Street Commissioner was read first and second times.

An ordinance to prevent and remove obstructions of streets and side-walks was read first time.

An ordinance to prevent runaways was read first and second times.

An ordinance to improve certain streets was read first and second times.

An ordinance to collect taxes, licenses, &c., in U. S. coin passed.

A CORRECTION.—We are informed by Governor Gibbs, Superintendent of the Penitentiary, that our item in yesterday's paper relative to the escape of convicts was incorrect in several particulars. It seems that only two made the attempt to escape, and that only one got away, the other was shot through the hip, and stopped. The sufficiency of the guard was equal to what it has been before, and this is the first escape that has occurred during the seven months past in which the Governor has had the supervision of the Penitentiary, and the efficiency of the officers and guards who have the immediate control of the convicts is manifest, when it is considered that during the same time last year there were twelve escapes. Our item of yesterday was published just as it was told to us on the street at a late hour the previous evening, and we presume that any one can understand how easy an item of this kind can be and in fact usually is magnified.

THROWN FROM A HORSE.—Mr. V. Paris, tin smith on Alder street, was thrown from a horse yesterday afternoon about three o'clock, in the vicinity of the Jewish Synagogue. He was taken up in an insensible state and conveyed to his room, supposed to be seriously injured; but an examination by Dr. Elwert, the attending physician, proved that no bones were broken, and that Mr. Paris would soon recover the shock sustained by the fall.

GLASS BLOWERS.—The National Glass Blowers will give one of their instructive exhibitions at the Turn Verein Hall to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock, for the benefit of the different Schools of the city. There will be no performance at night, however; but a series of exhibitions will be given next week, commencing on Monday night.

THANKS.—We acknowledge the receipt of a package of pictorials and papers from Charles Barrett's Newspaper Depot, just received by overland mail.

TO BUILDERS.—This is the last day for receiving bids for the new school house for the Congregation Beth-Israel.

Union County Convention at Vancouver.

The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Union County Convention, held in Vancouver, W. T., May 16th, 1863:

WHEREAS, A needless and wicked rebellion exists in our nation, drawing men of all parties to the defense of our Government, and

WHEREAS, The main thought and desire of true patriots of all political parties, is for the crushing out of treason wherever found, whether at the South in armed resistance to law and order, or at the North in measures and parties whose sole aim is to embarrass the lawfully constituted authorities of our Nation in their efforts to overthrow the enemies of our Union, and

WHEREAS, All other issues are unimportant, therefore:

Resolved, By this Convention that peace with rebels on any terms, except an unconditional surrender to the national authority, would be dishonorable; that the surest and quickest way to vindicate justice and honor, is a vigorous prosecution of the war; and that believing that the war so prosecuted must end in the permanent establishment of one Government over one people, we are for the war for that glorious consummation, at any cost of life and means.

Resolved, 2d, That while our soldiers fight under one banner, with one purpose, in the field, we should be united in the defense of the Government at home.

Resolved, 3d, That adherence to old parties in this crisis, is unpatriotic and mischievous, and that all who truly love their country, should be pledged to unanimity in sentiment and action in its behalf, against all foes military or political.

Resolved, 4th, That we will band ourselves in one Union League, to sustain the Administration in its efforts to restore the National authority, and to crush treason and traitors from our soil, with all that can, germinate or support either.

Resolved, 5th, That we will select such men, and only such, to represent Clarke county in the Union Territorial Convention to be holden at Vancouver, W. T., on the 25th inst., as entertain sentiments and feelings in harmony with the foregoing preamble and resolutions.

LEVI DOUTHIT,
Ch'm of Committee.

The following named gentlemen were elected Delegates to the Union Territorial Convention to be held at Vancouver, May 25th, 1863:—Messrs. T. M. Coffey, J. O. Raynor, S. R. Whipple, Levi Douthit, John Aird and Wm. H. Martin.

FROM KENTUCKY.—Put in your crops, farmers of Kentucky, and do not fear that you will not be allowed to harvest them in security. The days of rebel raids upon your peaceful fields are checked; the power of your Government for your protection can now be exercised, and a cordon of loyal hearts and bristling bayonets is about to be drawn as a wall to keep off the desolation of invasion and the incendiary torch of guerrillas.—Louisville Journal.

DR. D. JAYNES'
EXPECTORANT
AND SANATIVE PILLS

HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG, and found such general favor in every region of country where they have been sold, (and there is no place on the civilized globe where they have not been sold) that it would seem almost superfluous at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press. Yet it is due to suffering humanity, and especially to that numerous class who, in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast, suffer from including and ending in CONSUMPTION, many of whom may not have used this remedy, that they should be all urged to read of some of the cases where its influence has been useful in remedying complaints from which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT

Operates Immediately upon the Disease,
SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT, while the SANATIVE PILLS, by preserving regularity in the Bowels, and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and assist the perfect operation of the former.

Attention is asked to the following Certificates, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors:

UPPER OWCHLAN, Chester Co. Pa., Sept. 15, 1858.
DR. D. JAYNE—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS, and having the advice of some of the most eminent physicians, whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove to be of any avail, I obtained no relief for my suffering until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT. After taking it for about three months, I was entirely cured.
NATHAN PENNYPACKER.

Astoria, Long Island, Jan 15, 1860.
L. W. TINKEL, Esq., New York—SIR: As you well know I have been afflicted with BRONCHITIS accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest, and great difficulty of breathing for nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in the power of medical science, when at some friendly suggestion I began the well known and cough Expectorant "EXPECTORANT" of Dr. Jayne, of Philadelphia. Three or four days after having commenced to take it, my cough, heretofore violent, ... the expectoration was easy and the breathing quite free.
I am now quite another man, and my general health has never been better.
I remain, my dear Tinkel, with esteem, your servant and friend, J. B. MONTE.

WINDSOR, Muscatawas Co. O., May 31, 1860.
DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: One bottle of your Expectorant cured my daughter of the LONG FEVER, after having been beyond the reach of recovery. During the attack she had a number of convulsions. She is now perfectly well.
J. H. COFFMAN.

BULLINGTON, Bradford Co. Pa., July 21, 1860.
DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to take EXPECTORANT and PILLS and after taking ten bottles of the PILLS was completely cured, and is now able to labor every day. JOHN HENRY.

We were familiar with the above case that we sold to Mr. Henry the medicine for his son, and know that the statement is correct.
MERRY, WILHELMA & CO.

Deutscher Zahnarzt,

HAVING RECEIVED A NEW SUPPLY OF DENTAL Instruments, I, as heretofore, take pleasure in stating to my patrons and the public generally that I am prepared to perform all operations belonging to the Dental department by the newest methods, in the most scientific and most skillful manner.

I also take this opportunity to thank the citizens of Portland and vicinity for their liberal patronage during my residence in this city, and hope, by doing my work not only in conformity with the utmost economical interests, but also in a style of workmanship not surpassed by any other Dental operator—to make in the future my best return to maintain your confidence.

ARTIFICIAL TEETH, in the newest and most improved methods, constructed on the following materials:
GOLD, PLATINA, SILVER, RUBBER, AMBER, or CORALITE BASE,
at the option of the Patient.

The Extraction of Teeth by his method is now to any other, as the patient need not undergo the unpleasant, and dangerous state of inhaling Chloroform, but will have his tooth extracted without that horror ... thoroughly treats to the last endurable moment, or suffering.

All operations warranted to give satisfaction, or no charge will be made.

Special attention paid to the regulation of children's teeth. Difficult Dental operations particularly solicited.

Ladies waited on at their residences if desired.

References of Physicians and Families given at the Office.

Prices will be moderate in all cases.

IMPROVED TIGHT-STITCH
FAMILY
SEWING MACHINES
are unrivaled by any for beauty, simplicity of construction and accuracy in working, and will do
IN A PERFECT MANNER,
A greater range of work than any other machine.

The value of a Sewing Machine cannot be estimated by the amount of wood, iron, brass or steel used in its construction, but by the manner in which these materials are put together, and the quantity and quality of the work it turns out. You can buy a watch or a piano-forte for very little money; but if you want either for your own use, you wish an article which can be relied upon, and you will purchase accordingly.

LADD & WEBSTER'S
use a straight needle; curved ones are liable to break.

They make a tight lock-stitch, alike on both sides of the work, which cannot be ravelled.

Every machine is sent from our office threaded, and with work under the needle ready for operation, accompanied with such explicit printed instructions as will enable persons who may never have seen a machine to teach themselves.

DR. BAKER'S
PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I may most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhoea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

A Terrific Combat

FIGHT BETWEEN A LION AND A GORILLA

My black guide whose movements were as noiseless and gliding as those of a snake, was about two yards in front of me, pushing gently but swiftly on hands and knees through the tangled underwood and thorny creepers which made the entrance into the dense and gloomy recesses of the primeval African forests almost impassible to the hardiest of the human race, and I was eagerly following in the track which he had made, when suddenly he paused, uttered a low slight hiss, and placing his right hand behind him, made with a gentle movement, warning me to be silent and cautious.

How long we both remained motionless and hardly daring to draw a breath, I know not. It may have been five minutes. It appeared to me as many hours. I felt neither fear nor apprehension of danger but my anxiety to obtain a sight of a living gorilla, and, if possible, to get within shot of him, and the hope that my black hunter had at length marked one, caused my heart to throb with expectation so loudly that in order to still it I was obliged to hold my breath forcibly until the sense of suffocation became unbearable, and it was with great difficulty I repressed a spasmodic tendency to relieve the oppressed lungs by a scream. At length my guide moved forwards, but so silently that his progress was more like that of a shadow than of anything having life and weight in it. His hand was still carried behind him, and the open palm towards me, and every motion of the fingers instinct with intelligence and warnings of the presence of danger the most imminent and deadly. The Fan (my guide was a splendid specimen of that noblest of the Central African tribes) again stopped. His palm expanded, and I instantly paused. The ground shook with a slight tremor. The air vibrated around us and beat flutteringly upon our ears as the reader may have felt when the deepest bass of a great organ is gently touched. At first I did not perceive that the agitation was the result of sound, but as the vibration was passing away I distinguished a low deep roar, and found that some terrible beast, most probably either a lion or gorilla, was close at hand, and was either conversing in a low tone with his mate, or was uttering the first notes of suspicion or alarm.

I had seen the nasty little birds which attend the rhinoceros and perform for the deep folds of his thick but not insensible hide the duty which in civilized society is remitted to the small toothed comb. I know how sharp a watch and ward they keep over the safety of their living feeding ground, and how they scream and dig their sharp and searching beaks into the fierce brute's ear when anything dangerous approaches his resting place, and I feared lest some such courtierly parasite of the woods might have attached itself to the service and the court of the anthropoidal apish monarch, and was now whispering into his majesty's ear its suspicions that certain barbarian invaders or low and villainous revolutionists of an inferior order of the gorilla species were trespassing within the bounds which his majesty had been graciously pleased to reserve as the limits of his own exclusive private domain. I listened but no particular note or chirp struck my ear. The silence was almost appalling, so was the darkness of that portion of the dense forest into which we had penetrated. Very shortly after we had entered the woods the fierce glare of the sun had ceased to penetrate to the ground except at rare intervals. The broad luxuriant upper foliage of the mighty trees completely excluded the blaze of a tropical sun, which shone down through a yellow atmosphere like the mouth of an open furnace, from a sphere of polished, glaring, reddened brass. At first there were cool extensive forest glades, and vast avenues of gigantic trees, populous and noisy with birds of gorgeous plumage but discordant voices, then came closer stems and lesser growth of scions springing emulously up amidst the giant parents of the woods. Thick tangles of tough stalked creepers intertwining with thorny plants, like briars of gigantic growth, next barred our path in places which were thereby made absolutely impenetrable. At length, after threading our way through tracks which the wild animals had slightly made, we reached those darkest, densest portions of the woods, where the Fan hunter knew that the gorilla could be found, if found at all.

Here, in the interpenetralia, the voices of the forest had altogether ceased. The hiss of a serpent, the twitter of a grasshopper or locust, the hoot of an owl, or the chatter of a stray monkey, might indeed be occasionally heard, but such sounds were few and far between, and they served rather to illustrate and mark the silence by showing how exceptional and discordant with all things around they were. The darkness, although nearly as deep as that of a starless night, was not nightlike. It was thick and close and pitchy, provokative of closed eyes and slumber; it was a greenish black, living, startling, intelligent and wakeful, as though the light was struggling to break through from the outside, and exciting hope that it would succeed momentarily. The eyes strained to pierce the verdant gloom. They seemed to feel a power within them to become accustomed to it, and to dilate their pupils sufficiently to magnify the few attenuated rays which had floated into and lost themselves in that leafy-roofed dungeon until they should be made to illuminate its depths and unfold its secrets.

The pause which my guide now made was longer than the first one, but to me it was not so painful. The oppression was necessarily great, but my nerves were strung perfectly to endure it, and my expectation was higher, more assured, and calm.

The Fan looked round to see where I was. The movement gave me pleasure, because I was then certain that my progress was so completely noiseless that even the quick ear of my savage friend had failed to detect the crushing of a withered stick or leaf beneath me. As the black turned his face to me his eyes were the only feature that were distinctly visible. They appeared to be lighted up by a lurid fire within them, and when his head was sufficiently brought round to look upon me fully, his eyes glared brightly and fiercely as those of a royal Bengal tiger. Mine must have looked smilingly upon him for he made a gesture of surprise with hand and countenance, then grinned showing his brilliant white teeth from ear to ear and formed an O with his mouth which I interpreted as an intimation that a gorilla, if not a whole family of those delicate monsters was within view, and bring forward his rifle so as to see that the cap was right, he resumed his cautious advance. Turning a little to the left he made room for me to draw up alongside of him, and I then discovered that we had reached the inner edge of the brushwood, and that a clear space, forming a small amphitheatre in the forest, was before us. An enormous tree which seemed to have overshadowed and destroyed every plant and shrub within its range, occupied the centre, and formed the dense canopy of this open space. A slight gesture from the black hunter directed my attention to the foot of the giant of the woods, but he at the same time placed one hand above his eyes, thereby intimating to me that I must shade mine before looking lest the glare of them in the darkness should attract the attention of our game. Laying myself along my double barrel rifle, I shaded my eyes with both my hands and looked towards the great tree. Sitting on the ground, cross legged, with his back against the trunk, his hands lying carelessly at his sides with the palms turned up, and his head sunk down between his shoulders, in a dozing, if not sleeping state, was a huge male gorilla. His profile was towards us. At the opposite side of the amphitheatre the tree sometimes concealing them from our view, were a female and a young male feeding and gathering some kind of nuts which the female occasionally carried and threw on the ground close to her dozing lord and master. I watched their proceedings for some time with intense interest. At length the Fan made a sign of interrogation which recalled me to a sense of our position. We were too far from our dangerous game to risk a shot at him, which, if it only wounded without killing, would bring not only himself but possibly his wife and young hopeful upon us before we could draw another trigger; if we started him only, without hitting him, he might plunge into the jungle and escape. We could not lie there all day looking at him without doing anything and we dare not attempt to hold council with one another, as the lowest whisper would reach either the sleeping or the waking members of the family.

LEGAL

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all net profits (less $600) [illegible] from any source whatever [illegible] deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes, Insured [illegible] Rents [illegible] the necessary [illegible] on his business, but no farmer [illegible] any person has a right to deduct his own labor as [illegible] expense from his income.

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year commencing January 1st, 1862, so that on the evening of December 31st, 1862, everybody should make up a record of their income, gains or profits for that year. And as many sources of income, such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks, Insurance Stock, Savings Banks interest, &c., (these having already paid the income tax,) are not again taxed, it therefore becomes necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income, that there may be no dispute with the Assessor.

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends.

For Example:

A man in business must make up the nett profits of his business for the year and pay the tax on the amount less $600.

A man may outside of his business speculate and even make more than his profits in the business does, nevertheless he must pay tax on all nett business profits except the $600. And so with a salary; all over $600 must be taxed, though personal or family expenses consumed it all.

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May 1863 and [illegible] on or before the 30th June, 1863. And any sums due and unpaid [illegible] thirty days after the 30th June, [illegible] for ten days after demand by the Collector, five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid.

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely Vegetable), hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters, which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
PHYSICIANS
and CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I, therefore, thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the Digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Well gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbrom, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing, for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
